

► SHORT INFORMATION ◀

Name: Árpád Berczik

Positions in International Association for Danube Research (IAD):

Country Representative: Hungary.

Affiliation: Danube Research Institute Centre for Ecological Research H.A.S.; Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest, Hungary.

Main research field: hydrobiology, ecology, zoology, running waters, shallow lakes.

Interests: River Danube, floodplain ecology; limnology of Lake Fertő/Neusiedler See, anthropogenic impacts, restoration, etc.

Additional information:

Member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, honorary member (earlier general secretary and vice-president) of Hungarian Hydrological Society, member of International Society of Limnology (SIL), former director of the Institute of Ecology and Botany (incl. Danube Research Station) of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, coordination of national and international projects, as the professor of Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest) I am taking part in gradual and postgraduate teaching, member or leader of scientific committees and corporations, editor or member of the editorial board of scientific journals, expert opinions, taking part in scientific and applied national and international committees.

Contact: arpad.berczik@okologia.mta.hu, Danube Research Institute Centre for Ecological Research H-1113, Karolina út 29. Budapest, Hungary, 0036 30 5836943.